

SPRING

1 Plea se for give me if I did you wrong

2 Each home has a young girl try ing on her new dress

2 Gin ger's of fered to guests to wish them ha ppi ness

3 in their new boots

4 spor ting their new suits

2 pea sants ride to the church ta king their mates a long

1 Plea se for give me if I did you wrong

2 From one house to the next e cho wi shes and calls

2 pink- and blue- co loured carts whizz past a lleys and malls

3 bru nettes and blondes

4 their best co stumes donned

2 shake their gold an kle- bells to the swing of gay songs

1 Plea se for give me if I did you wrong

2 Rams are washed and decked out for the sa cred pa rade

2 charms that hang from their necks re flect A pril sun rays

3 friends call on friends

4 talk and make a mends

2 bonds are streng thened a new to get be tter a long

1 Plea se for give me if I did you wrong

2 Wo men ne stle a gainst their well- dressed hus bands' waists

2 eve ry bo dy for gets all the hard ships they faced

3 all take a seat

4 and set out to eat

2 while a wai ting their turn a few hawks cir cle on

1 Plea se for give me if I did you wrong